

Lithopolis United Methodist Church Rules of Conduct Agreement

To ensure the safety and well-being of all involved in the LUMC Youth Ministry, we expect each student and adult leader to conform to the following rules of conduct:

- Possession or use of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco is prohibited.
- Students cannot drive during youth events.
- Fighting, weapons, fireworks, lighters, or explosives are forbidden.
- Proper and appropriate clothing should be worn at all times.
- For overnight events, boys will remain in their designated areas, girls will remain in their designated areas.
- Participation in group activities is expected.
- Treat others how you would want to be treated. This includes demonstrating respect for property as well as respect for one another, staff, adult leaders and their decisions.
- Respect and comply with event schedules and demonstrate an open and flexible attitude as schedules and events can be subject to change.

Students who fail to comply with these expectations may be sent home at their parents' expense. The Coordinator of Youth Ministries and adult leaders reserve the right to confront attitudes and behaviors deemed to be in violation of these stated rules.

I, the student, have read and understand the rules of conduct, the above evaluation of my health, and am aware of any personal limitations concerning my involvement and participation in youth group activities. I agree to abide by the stated medical history, and code of conduct.
